

I was appalled to find out the Sinclair planned to air a "documentary" maligning John Kerry who served our country honorably during the Vietnam era.

Media conglomerates such as Sinclair illustrate the great threat to our democracy posed by consolidation of the media.

Propagandist organizations such as Sinclair are supposed to be illegal. I expect the FCC to police such organizations and apply scrutiny when licenses of their local affiliates come up for renewal.